

A STUDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

FREEDOM PREP AWARDS & RECOGNITION

TN Dept of Education:
REWARD School 2011,
2012, 2013

Freedom Prep was named a Tennessee REWARD School. Reward Schools represent the top 5% of schools in the state for performance - as measured by overall student achievement levels - and the top 5% for year-over-year progress.

SCORE Prize Finalist,
2012, 2013

For the second year in a row, Freedom Prep was recognized by the State Collaborative on Reforming Education (SCORE) as a leader in student learning. As a SCORE Prize finalist, Freedom Prep demonstrated success in preparing students for college and careers.

“At Freedom Prep, the teachers want you to do well. If they see you failing, they help you out. They didn’t do this at my other school. They just watched you fail. Teachers at Freedom Prep care about you.”

- Kierra, 9th grader, Fields Road Campus

“Freedom Prep is like a big family. The teachers know if you’re struggling and they take the time to help you out until you understand. They are all very patient. They really want you to learn.”

- Trevion, 7th grader, Main Campus

“I feel very safe here at Freedom Prep. I used to act out at my other school. No one does that here. When I started here, I knew I had to change.”

- Corneisha, 9th grader, Fields Roads Campus

“I’m going to college. I know I am.”

- Tylie, Kindergartner, Westwood Campus

“Everyone here wants you to succeed when you go to Freedom Prep. The standards are pretty high. Teachers push you to your limits and it’s tough. But, you know it’s because they want you to go to college. I have friends that go to different schools and they’re at least two levels behind me. . . and we’re the same age!”

- Luis, 9th grader, Fields Road Campus

“Freedom Prep is hard, but it challenges me in ways I didn’t even know! Freedom Prep gives you the chance to find out what you’re good at doing and takes it to another level. I know, now, after college, I want to start a game company so I can challenge others.”

- Kristopher, 10th grader, Fields Road Campus

“I feel like I belong.”

- Fanny, 8th Grade,
Main Campus
